

What the critics say:

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE QUEEN'S CROWN JEWELS

"More Sherlockian, than Sherlock has ever been"

"Denmark's blogger awards the performance five large cocktail sausages"

"There is a lovely, crazy mixture of classic street theatre, thriller-satire and English comedy"

"As always, the tempo is at full pelt and there are tons of crazy gags and a balance between physical theatre, mime and action which is eminent"

★★★★★ Dorte J. Thorsen, Danmarksbloggen

"We are at one with the actors, when they blast through their sommer-mystery thriller. We cheer the heroes and boo the villain. We are guests in our own town again and we feel at home with Dansk Rakkerpak."

"Accessible and funny comic thriller, combining classic street theatre with modern satire."

Morten Hede, Teateravisen

"Clownery, street-charm and audience contact are the main headlines from my street theatre experience."

"There emerges a feeling of commonality as the performance unfolds."

Rosa Danielsen, Ungt Teaterblod
